Presumptive rate of tax

266. SHRI K. RAHMAN KHAN: Will the Minister of FINANCE be pleased to state:

(a) what is the total number of new assessees who have opted for presumptive rate of tax;

(b) whether Government are aware that people are forced by Income Tax Department to make the scheme successful; and

(c) whether Government have examined the representation of various trade bodies about the harassment and what steps have been taken to curb the harassment?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF FINANCE (SHRI M. V. CHANDRASHEKHAR MURTHY): (a) Upto the end of February, '95, 112529 persons have opted under the Presumptive Tax Scheme during 1994-95.

(b) and (c) No specific instance of any coercion to pay tax under the Presumptive Tax Scheme under section 115K of the Income tax act has been brought to notice. However, in the wake of the general complaints, wide publicity has been given to the fact that the Scheme is absolutely voluntary and a taxpayer can either pay tax under the above scheme or resort to filing of returns under the other provisions of the Income tax Act, if he has taxable income. The field authorities have also been strictly instructed to avoid any cause for complaints in this regard.
